The tuition exchange agreement between the College of William & Mary and the University of Adelaide allows W&M students to pay their regular tuition to W&M while taking classes at Adelaide. The exchange program is best for VA in-state students. Students not chosen for the exchange program have the option of direct enrolling. Estimated costs for direct enrollment are: AUD$9,800 (USD$8,500) for one semester and AUD$19,600 (USD$16,930) for two semesters.

The University of Adelaide, established in 1874, is among Australia's leading universities. Studying at the University of Adelaide means being part of a rich tradition of excellence in education and research, with world-class academic staff and a vibrant student life. The University offers over 120 programs of study with numerous course options under each program. The University's campus life and close engagement with its community provide social, cultural and intellectual stimulation and an appreciation of diversity.

Students will have a number of housing and meal options:

Adelaide is the capital city of the state of South Australia. The city is located on a coastal plane between the Adelaide Hills and the Gulf of St. Vincent, which provides many miles of sandy swimming beaches. Adelaide is an extremely attractive city of about one million people set in a ring of parkland. The city boasts a world class festival of arts, major sporting events, a major art center, good shopping, cinemas, and a large number of art galleries.
