

Economics 101: Principles of Microeconomics
Fall 2024

Professor: Katie Lopresti

Email: kelopresti@wm.edu

Office: Chancellors Hall #257

Office Hours*: (location is Chancellors 212)

Mon/Wed: 2:15 -3:30 pm

Fri: 10 am -11 am

Schedule: MWF

Section 03: 12:00 -12:50 pm

Section 02: 1:00 -1:50 pm

Location (Sections 02 & 03): Washington
Hall 201

*Office hours are held when classes are in session (not during breaks or final exam periods).

Course Overview: In Principles of Microeconomics, we will study the economic behavior of individuals, firms, and governments and consider how they make choices and respond to incentives in a world of scarcity. We will cover a wide variety of topics including market equilibrium, market structure, market efficiency, public goods, and externalities. Students will learn to use economics as a lens through which to understand and study a variety of subjects.

Course TA: We are very lucky to have two teaching assistants this semester, Haley and Lillian. All TA office hours are in Chancellors 212.

- Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday: 4:30-6:00 pm

W&M TutorZone: Not only do we have specific student TAs for our course, but you can also book individual appointments at TutorZone (a student led tutoring resource at W&M). These are free appointments where you can work with student tutors for Econ 101. Please access more information here:

<https://www.wm.edu/offices/deanofstudents/services/academic-wellbeing/tutors/>.

Textbook: Principles of Microeconomics, by N. Gregory Mankiw. Any edition (old or new) is fine for the course.

Student Evaluation: This course consists of three midterm exams, a cumulative final exam, six homework assignments, “one minute papers”, and two economics journal assignments.

- Homework: There will be six homework assignments during the semester, each assigned a week before its due date. Homework is due in class, by the end of the class period. No late assignments will be accepted. If you are ill and cannot attend class, you may have another student turn in the homework to me or slide it under my office door (Chancellors 257) by the end of the class period. (As a last resort, in extenuating circumstances, you may email me your homework by the end of the class period). Please do NOT put homework in my mailbox on the 3rd floor. To access homework assignments, please refer to the Blackboard site for this course.

Assignment	Due Date
HW 1	Sept. 11 th
HW 2	Sept. 18 th
HW 3	Oct. 4 th
HW 4	Oct. 16 th
HW 5	Nov. 4 th
HW 6	Nov. 11 th

- Exams: Exam dates are provided below. There will be no make-up exams. I will drop the lowest midterm score. (Every student gets one dropped midterm score – this allows you to miss one exam if need be, for travel, illness, club events, etc. Please plan carefully).

Exam	Date	Time
Exam 1	Sept. 25th	In-class
Exam 2	Oct. 23 rd	In-class
“Extra” Exam 3	Nov. 20 th	In-class

*I call exam #3 “extra” because if you took Exam #1 and Exam #2 and are satisfied with your scores, you do not need to take exam #3 (it would become your dropped exam score). Of course, if you had to miss exam 1 or 2 or are unsatisfied with those scores, you will take exam 3.

*No headphones or hats are permitted during exams.

Final Exam Date (the final exam is cumulative):

YOU MUST SHOW UP TO THE FINAL EXAM SCHEDULED FOR YOUR SECTION***

- Section 2: December 13th, 2:00 pm – 5:00 pm, Washington 201
- Section 3: December 11th, 9:00 am – 12:00 pm, Washington 201

It is your responsibility to double-check all of your final exam times at:

<http://www.wm.edu/offices/registrar/calendarsandexams/examschedules/>.

- Economics Journal: Two times during the semester, you will complete a journal assignment. I will provide more detail on this assignment as the semester progresses.

Assignment	Due Date
ENTRY 1	Oct. 25 th
ENTRY 2	Nov. 22 nd

Economic journals should be submitted by typing your journal directly into the Blackboard prompt box or uploading a word document or pdf document to Blackboard. Do not use other formats, such as Apple Pages.

- One Minute Papers: Attendance will not be directly taken in this course. However, at the end of some unannounced class sessions, I will ask you to take one minute and write down something you did not understand during the class period and what you understood the best from that class. This provides me with helpful feedback on the material covered in lecture, as well as providing an incentive for you to attend class.

Breakdown of Course Grades:

Component	% of Course Grade
Economics Journal	2.5%
One Minute Papers	1%
Homework	10.5%
Exam 1	27%
Exam 2	27%
Final Exam	32%
Total	100%

*Again, only the two highest midterm exam grades will enter into your final grade.

Letter grades will be assigned using the following grading scale: 93% -100% = A, 90% to 92.99% = A-, 88% to 89.99%=B+, 83%-87.99=B, 80%-82.99%=B-, 78%-79.99%=C+, 73%-77.99%=C, 70%-72.99%=C-, 68%-68.99%=D+, 63%-67.99%=D, and 60%-62.99%=D-. Grades below 60% will result in an F.

A grading curve may be determined at the end of the semester. The curve would never be stricter than the 90-80-70-60 scale.

Course due dates: I will notify students of any changes in assignment due dates in advance of those posted due dates. Changes in due dates may occur in the event of cancelled classes due to inclement weather, typos in the syllabus, or other circumstances that change the pace at which we progress through the course material.

All grades will be posted on Blackboard. If a student finds a discrepancy between the grade on their assignment and the grade posted on Blackboard, they have one week after the assignment is returned to bring this to the professor's attention or the grade will remain.

Add/Drop and Withdrawals

- The add/drop deadline is September 9th.
- The withdrawal deadline is October 28th.

Important W&M Calendar dates can be accessed here:

<https://www.wm.edu/offices/registrar/calendarsandexams/ugcalendars/index.php>.

Academic Honesty: All students are expected to adhere to the Honor Code:

<https://www.wm.edu/offices/communityvalues/sarp/honorcodeandcouncils/>

Students are always encouraged to study together, but all academic work that is turned in should be the student's own work and students should follow all course guidelines. Please note, this means if you do your homework with another student, your work should not be an exact duplicate of another student's work. Use your own words to explain what you are doing.

*All the assigned coursework (exams, homework assignments, etc.) are created by me and are my intellectual property. No material from our course should be posted or shared outside of our class.

Attendance and Absences: Economics is a course where knowledge builds throughout the semester. Regular attendance is important to succeed in this course. However, if you do have a necessary absence, I expect you to work with a class contact to borrow notes from the course. On the first day of class, we will create a “buddy system.” Please share contact information with at least one person in the class so that you have a student you can borrow notes from if you need to miss class. You are welcome to contact me if you need help finding a class contact.

*Please inform faculty within the first three weeks of classes of any religious observances that may directly conflict with classes.

*Students who find themselves in emergency situations should contact Care Support Services immediately. Below is contact information for Student Success (which houses Care Support Services) in case you find yourself in an emergency situation and need to work with their office to continue your academic success.

Email: care@wm.edu

Phone: (757) 221-2511

Location: Sadler Center, Suite 161

Class Conduct: During the class period, please put your cell phones away. Please do not use your cell phones for any reason (texting, taking photos, etc.). If I see you using your cell phone, I will ask you to put your phone away. If there is an urgent reason that you need to access your phone, please exit the classroom to do so. Also, students are not permitted to wear headphones during class or exams.

In this class, the use of laptops is not the best way to take notes. Use of laptops in class is not permitted. Tablets that you can write on may be useful, but please speak with me first if you feel you need to use a laptop in class.

Additionally, while I have two sections of this course, you must attend the section for which you have registered. If there are extenuating circumstances (campus sponsored events or travel for example), you may email me to request to sit in on another section that day. Class work and exams may not be accepted if you submit them during the section you are not registered for.

In Washington 201, on the rare occasion you arrive late to class, please enter through the back doors to avoid disrupting the class.*

Useful Guidelines for Lecture Classes and Office Hours

If you are new to William & Mary or would like to familiarize yourself with the basic rules for how office hours or lecture classes work, please see some useful guides and expectations below. (The following resources were created by Josh Burke, Cheryl Dickter, Karin Wulf, and Janice Zeman during a University Teaching Project.)

- Hidden Rules of Lecture Classes: <https://www.wm.edu/sites/neurodiversity/documents/hiddenrulesseminar.pdf>
- Hidden Rules for Office Hours: <https://www.wm.edu/sites/neurodiversity/documents/hidden-rules-for-office%20hours.pdf>

Student Accessibility Services: Any student with disabilities who feels they may require additional accommodations to assist their academic success based on a physical, psychiatric, learning, or chronic health diagnosis should contact the Student Accessibility Services office. Please notify me well in advance of any exams or other course deadlines and provide documentation from Student Accessibility Services if you require additional accommodations for exams and coursework.

Please note that you must contact SAS in advance to schedule a place to take your exams if you have accommodations (schedule more than a week prior to the date of the exam). Since you have the dates of all your exams, you should book all your exam spots in the first few weeks of the semester. If you fail to contact me or SAS in advance, you may be unable to use your accommodations for exams and coursework.

COVID Policies

Please note that this course will follow rules and guidelines implemented by W&M surrounding Covid. Recommended protocols may change based on new information. In the event this happens, I will inform you via email about our plans and any necessary adjustments to the course format going forward. If you have questions about W&M's current Covid policy, please visit this link:

https://www.wm.edu/about/administration/emergency/current_issues/coronavirus/.

AI Policies

All work in this course must be your own work. Use of AI is not allowed in this course at any stage of your work. Work that you submit to the class may be reviewed, if necessary, for content generated by AI.

 AI is evolving over time and so will its use in W&M classrooms and your future careers. However, in this introduction course, it is essential that you master economic tools and concepts on your own. If you do not have a deep individual understanding of these introductory economic concepts and a strong base of knowledge about how to use an economic model, then AI tools will not be useful to you in your future careers. Everyone can use AI, but what knowledge or skills will you be able to bring to a future employer beyond what AI will already do?

Other Available Services

Writing and Communication Center

The Writing and Communication Center, located on the first floor of Swem Library, is a free service provided to W&M students. Trained consultants offer individual assistance with writing, presentation, and other communication assignments across disciplines and at any stage, from generating ideas to polishing a final product. The WCC's goal is to help you become a better writer and communicator. To make an appointment, visit the WCC webpage (www.wm.edu/wcc).

Library Research Services

William & Mary Libraries offers free research assistance to all students at W&M. Research librarians hold a graduate degree in library science and are trained to help users find, evaluate, and ethically use high-quality sources for their research projects. To make an appointment, visit libraries.wm.edu/ask. Students may also receive drop-in research help during business hours by visiting the front desk of Swem Library or live chat with a librarian 24/7 at libraries.wm.edu.

Mental and Physical Well-Being

William & Mary recognizes that students juggle different responsibilities and can face challenges that make learning difficult. There are many resources available at W&M to help students navigate emotional/psychological, physical/medical, material/accessibility concerns. Asking for help is a sign of courage and strength. If you or someone you know is experiencing any of these challenges, we encourage you to reach out to the following offices:

- For psychological/emotional stress, please consider reaching out to the W&M Counseling Center <https://www.wm.edu/offices/wellness/counselingcenter/>; or (757) 221-3620, 240 Gooch Dr., 2nd floor. Services are free and confidential.
- Students now have access to TimelyCare, a virtual health platform with 24/7 availability: <https://www.wm.edu/offices/uhr/benefits/health/timelycare/>.
- For physical/medical concerns, please consider reaching out to the W&M Health Center at <https://www.wm.edu/offices/wellness/healthcenter/>; or (757) 221-4386, 240 Gooch Drive.
- For additional support or resources, please contact Student Success and submit a Care Report at <https://www.wm.edu/offices/studentssuccess/caresupportservices/>; or by calling 757-221-2511, or by emailing care@wm.edu.
