

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Application for Independent Study

Independent study, conducted under the supervision of a W&M faculty member, provides an opportunity for students to conduct research in areas related to their IR major. The IR student will seek a faculty supervisor they know well and develop a topic that is appropriate to the faculty supervisor's expertise.

Instructions:

Complete this form, including the supervising faculty member's signature, and submit it to the Director of International Relations. Please note that you can use Adobe's Fill & Sign tool to complete this form.
