The Lang Legacy Award Disbursement Guide

What to expect if you are selected as the recipient of the Lang Legacy Award:

- 1) You may apply for the Lang Legacy Award to help offset the cost of your William & Mary enrollment next year. This is the primary purpose of the award and a priority of the fund. If you anticipate that your total cost of attendance next year (tuition & fees, room & board, and estimated indirect costs such as books, travel, etc.) will not be covered by other grants and scholarships, you can use the Lang Award to cover unmet need. The grant will be awarded through the Financial Aid Office and will be factored into your total William & Mary financial aid package.
- 2) Please be aware that if the total cost of attendance next year (tuition & fees, room & board, and estimated indirect costs) will be met with grants and scholarships in your William & Mary financial aid package, you can be awarded this scholarship, but you might not receive a cash disbursement. There are many possible scenarios for how the award can be applied, so please speak to your financial aid advisor to review the specifics in your case. It is the policy of the Department of Theatre and Dance to award deserving students in our programs. If you are awarded but do not receive a cash disbursement, you have been recognized for your achievements and given a distinction that will follow you throughout your career.

I have read the disbursement guide for the Lang Legacy Award.
