Behavior Agreement

Name: _____

Student Responsibility:

I understand that as a participant in the DC Summer Institutes, I will be viewed as a representative of The College of William and Mary. I affirm that I will not behave in a manner that would reflect poorly on my institution.

Personal Conduct:

I understand that as a resident in Washington, DC, I shall be subject to the laws of the District of Columbia, and the disciplinary rules and regulations of the residential program with which I am residing. I also agree to the following stipulations.

1. While enrolled in and attending the DC Summer Institutes, I understand that I am considered a William & Mary student.
2. I am expected to abide by
 - The rules and regulations set forth in the William & Mary Student Handbook, including the Student Code of Conduct and the Honor Code
 - All instructions presented by College faculty and administrators, whether written or verbal
 - The rules and regulations of the 450K
 - All W&M in Washington rules and policies as covered in our Orientation sessions.
3. Failure to comply with the conduct restrictions enumerated may result in disciplinary action. Disciplinary action will be conducted under modified procedures whereby
 - the Director of the DC Summer Institutes may act as the Director of Student Conduct for purposes of receiving and initially processing allegations, and may also him or herself take action on misconduct observed or believed to have occurred;
 - all matters shall be handled through informal resolution with the Director of the DC Summer Institutes acting as Case Administrator, except that the Director cannot impose a sanction of permanent dismissal or suspension from the College; and
 - if the sanction to be imposed requires a formal hearing on campus, or one is deemed necessary by the College, the student will be responsible for all travel arrangements to and from Williamsburg. The cost of transportation to and from campus will also be the responsibility of the student.

The College reserves the right to dismiss any participant from the program for reasons of unacceptable behavior. Such dismissal will be without refund of the program fee or housing costs. (You may be eligible for a prorated refund of the campus tuition/fees in accordance with the College policies outlined in the Catalogue.) Any additional expenses incurred for return transportation will be the responsibility of the student.

Academic Responsibility:

I understand that I am responsible for attendance at all classes and scheduled activities and that I am responsible for maintaining the mandatory minimum amount of credits in order to be considered a full-time student. I also understand that W&M academic regulations and procedures will apply to me while I am enrolled in this program.

Student Responsibility:

My signature below indicates that I have carefully read and understand completely and clearly the provisions stated above and agree to them.
