William & Mary Art & Science Exchange (ASE) Teams composed of William & Mary students, faculty, and staff are eligible to apply for grants to fund new interdisciplinary collaborations that result in a public-facing exhibition, performance, workshop, or presentation. Funded exchanges will provide students with transformative and personalized experiences, while encouraging the exploration of the relationship between the arts and the sciences, stimulating new discoveries, concepts, and perspectives, and inviting students of the arts to explore the sciences, and students of the sciences to explore the arts.
