

William and Mary Sports Medicine Workshop
Cramer Fellowship for Student Instructors Application

Eligibility

Applicants must have attended the William and Mary Sports Medicine Workshop within the last two years, have served as an athletic training student aide at their high school under the supervision of a certified athletic trainer, and have an interest in the field of athletic training, sports medicine, or related field.

Application Process

Applicants must complete all three sections of this application and submit all materials, postmarked by May 15, for review:

William and Mary Sports Medicine Workshop
P.O. Box 399
Williamsburg, VA 23185

Award winners will be notified by June 1. Questions should be addressed to Andy Carter at (757) 221-3407.

Section I

To be completed by the applicant:

Name of Applicant _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Email _____ Phone _____

High School _____ GPA/Class Rank _____

Supervising Athletic Trainer _____

Describe your Athletic Training Experience

Section II

To be completed by the supervising athletic trainer:

Name of Applicant _____

Print Name of Supervising ATC _____

Signature of Supervising ATC _____ Date _____

Please attach or provide below a letter of support for the applicant, describing his or her dedication and commitment to learning and the field of athletic training and the degree to which the applicant makes a positive contribution to the athletic training program at your school.

Section III

To be completed by the applicant:

Please attach or provide below an essay outlining the history of Cramer Products and the contributions that Chuck, Frank and Jack Cramer had on the athletic training profession. Highlight a specific experience from the William and Mary Sports Medicine workshop that motivated you to continue in athletic training.